WALLCOVERINGS 06 PRESS RELEASE SS19

ANTHOLOGY LAUNCHES WALLCOVERINGS VOLUME 06, AN EVOCATIVE COLLECTION OF EIGHT STATEMENT WALLCOVERINGS INSPIRED BY BRUTALIST ARCHITECTURE AND ORGANIC LANDFORMS NEW FOR SS19

Anthology presents volume 06, a stunning collection of wallcoverings inspired by industrial spaces, fabricated walls and the trend for polished natural and man-made surfaces, apposed with soft colours and delicate, feminine accents. Innovative production techniques have been used throughout with the Anthology studio contrasting plaster, concrete, burnished and hammered metals alongside polished, raw and aged facades.

Linda Thacker from the Anthology studio says, "Anthology Wallcoverings 06 is an expression of how natural and manmade forms work together to create something quite exceptional. We wanted to focus on how these forms change over time and how their interaction with man modifies them further. By using materials such as poured concrete alongside bespoke techniques, we have created a compendium of organic textures, juxtaposed with how man's involvement impacts on an element's overall look."

Oozing international glamour, Anthology Wallcoverings 06 comprises eight wallcoverings, manufactured using the most technically advanced machines and state of the art production methods. Embosses and embellishments add a luxurious textural detail to this eye-catching collection which works in harmony with Anthology's range of fabrics.

A wide array of colours has been used across the collection with names such as Limestone, Pumice, Ruby, Gold, Aventurine and Quartz chosen to reflect how minerals and natural surfaces contrast and complement with the metal ores and precious stones found in mined materials that shape our environment and habitats.

Continuing with the collection theme, Anthology's design names include Anthropic, which represents the interaction of man in the making of fabricated surfaces and the impact time has on materials, Metamorphosis, emulating the geological changes impacting on rock and stone and Pozzolana, one of the constituent parts of plaster and concrete.

THE WALLCOVERINGS

Pozzolana

Adding a feminine accent to the collection, Pozzolana is an architectural take on a modern damask, with textural lace elements juxtaposing against a look of manipulated cement.

Available in four colourways: Alabaster, Limestone, Pumice and Concrete

Nisiros

Rock strata inspires the compressed layers displayed in this Anthology wallpaper with its raw undulating edges giving an organic feel.

Available in six colourways: Alabaster, Limestone, Pumice, Purite/Azurite, Gold/Cinnabar and Bronze/Basalt

Zircon

This stunning vinyl is embedded with pure silver glitter flakes which add the most delicate of lustres whilst displaying the light refracting qualities of a gemstone.

Available in five colourways: Limestone/Gold Ore, Carrara/Silver Ore, Pumice/Crystal, Concrete/Quartz and Basalt/Gold

Anthropic

A highly figurative design capturing the interaction between man and interior constructs. Illustrative peeling surfaces represent the history of an interior or structure, capturing the passing of time and the change in use.

Available in four colourways: Azurite/Pewter, Aventurine/Brass, Sandstone/Gold and Concrete/Bronze

Groove

Resembling poured concrete and the strength this material provides, Groove's undulating serpentine stripe of double layered grit brings a malleable fluidity to this crisp, smart wallpaper.

Available in five colourways: Alabaster, Limestone, Pumice, Sandstone and Concrete

THE WALLCOVERINGS

Metamorphic

Represented by crushed layers of rock, this stunning design charts the natural evolution of time.

Available in eight colourways: Alabaster/Sandstone, Ash/Carrara, Amazonite/Apatite, Copper/Amber, Lapis/Copper, Pyrite/Charcoal, Pewter/Lead and Gold/Basalt

Vitruvius

A beaded crackle draws out the detail of this luxurious stripe wallpaper which resembles a cross section of marble, showing the layers and textures within.

Available in seven colourways: Limestone/Concrete, Pumice/Sandstone, Chrysocolla/Apatite, Copper/Ruby, Nickle/Celestine, Cement/Slate and Gold/Basalt

Perlite

Glistening subtly with the appearance of crushed glass, this stunning starburst motif captures the effect of dappled sunlight playing on water. Inspired by Anthology's original Shore design, Perlite has been updated with new mineral inks to give a dry textural effect.

Available in seven colourways: Chrysocolla/Gold Ore, Ruby/Antique Brass, Lapis/Copper Ore, Concrete/Bronze Ore, Basalt/Quartz, Opal/Gold Mineral and Gold Iridescent/Coal
